OUTINGS

Jan. 23rd. To Owl Woods, Amherst Island. This is not much notice but hope you will be able to fit it into your schedules. Norma Broadbear is a member of the Quinte Field Naturalists and has agreed to be our personal guide today. She is really good at finding owls. Thank you Donna Fano for organizing this for us.

Meeting at the ferry terminal at 9:00 a.m. We need to line up early in order to get a spot on the ferry. Cost of ferry is $8.00 per vehicle. Take Hwy 401 to Exit #593. Go south to Millhaven, turn right on Hwy 33 & go approx. 200m to the ferry dock. Departure is 9:30 a.m. from the mainland. This outing requires a long walk into the woods to begin with and then more walking through the woods looking for owls. The trail may be slippery in spots & there may be snow to get through. So..... be prepared: warm clothes, good warm boots (maybe ice-tracks for your boots depending on weather)

Bring a lunch as there are no restaurants on the island.
